COMMENTS: The report was due on February 18, 2020. On February 14, 2020, the finance report was sent to the Ethics Administrator by fax and by certified mail. Attached is the mail receipt along with the payment. (The date is verified by the tracking number on the payment receipt). Also attached are the proof of fax and cover page. It was not, however, electronically filed, as that requirement was unknown to me at the time. He respects the rule regarding electronic filing and did so immediately upon receiving the notice. He is requesting the waiver as the spirit of the filing requirement were followed as evidenced by the certified mail receipt and fax. Please consider that effort.

RE: Late fee assessment for a future election

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to request a waiver of the late fee assessment regarding the filing of my campaign finance report for a future election. The report was due on February 18, 2020. On February 14, 2020, the finance report was sent to the Ethics Administrator by fax and by certified mail. Attached is the mail receipt along with the payment. (The date is verified by the tracking number on the payment receipt). Also attached are the proof of fax and cover page. It was not, however, electronically filed, as that requirement was unknown to me at the time.

I respect the rule regarding electronic filing and did so immediately upon receiving the notice. I am requesting the waiver as the spirit of the filing requirement was followed as evidenced by the certified mail receipt and fax. Please consider that effort. I await and will abide by your decision.

Sincerely,

Clay Walker
